Dr. Sina,

Thank you very much for publicly accusing me of being an Islamic Terrorist. I give you 24 hours to remove your entire debate with me in your so-called forum. In other words completely take it off your site. I shall see my lawyers tomorrow to seek legal remedies if you fail to do so. I have already contacted the Scotland Yard in London and referred them to your website. I also have copies of everything you have posted on your site against me. These are clearly false accusations and amount to defamation of character.

Dear Dr. Assar,

If I am not mistaken you sound a little bit nervous. Why so? I only published your emails after you dared me to and insulted me for not publishing them right away. Then here you first thank me for publishing them and then immediately give me an ultimatum to remove them. May I say you are sending mixed messages?

I did not say you are a terrorist; you said it yourself. After all you wrote:

"I will do my best to kill as many innocent Americans as I can, be it with chemical, biological, or nuclear weapons or through suicide bombing."

You could be a peaceful and law abiding person, but how would I know that peaceful and law abiding people talk like that? So since you have nothing to hide, why are you so concerned?

As for contacting your lawyer, I think that is a good idea. You might actually need one.

Again I reiterate my offer. I will remove your emails if you answer the two questions I asked. If you can't answer them, please contact one of the Mullahs who know Islam best and ask him to do it. If any person can give one proof that Muhammad was indeed a messenger of God that I can't refute I will remove the entire site.

Read my debate with the Grand Ayatollah Montazeri. I think you'll agree that he failed to prove Islam is a true religion. There are over a billion Muslims in the world. There must be at least one person who can prove Muhammad was not an impostor. Or is there?

This is an important questions my dear Doctor. People are being killed everyday because of this belief. The world is rolling towards Armageddon because of Islam and you can't find even one person to prove Islam is true? Are you telling me you people are bringing the destruction of this planet because of a lie?

Give me one solid evidence that Islam is a true religion and I will remove your emails and the entire site.
